

Science & Heritage Cluster

Modelling, Interpretation and Alternate Representations:
Visualization technology, Heritage Buildings & Coastal Threats

Science and Heritage
Programme

Event 3: WORKSHOP ON HERITAGE MODELLING AND VISUALIZATION (HERITAGE BUILDINGS & MULTIVOCALITY)

9-10 July 2009, St Fagans: National History Museum

Draft programme 1.

THURSDAY 9 July

- 10.30am Registration and Refreshments
- 11.00am Introduction and Welcome (Jonathan Roberts, Bangor University)
- 11.10am “St. Fagans, Recreating History” Gerallt Nash (St. Fagans)
- 12.00pm “Models and Markup – models, photos, video and scanning”
John Councill and John Littlewood (University of Wales Institute, Cardiff)
- 12.50pm Lunch
- 2pm “Semantic terminology services for cultural heritage - multivocality issues” Doug Toudhope (Glamorgan University)
- 2.45pm “TBA” Karina Rodriguez Echavarria, (University of Brighton, EPOCH)
- 3.20pm Tea / Coffee
- 3.40pm “Heritage Visualization”, Roberto Scopigno (Institute of the Italian National Research Council - CNR)
- 4.20pm Discussion and Breakout Part 1: What computational environment is suitable for alternate scenario visualization? What functionality is required to visualize and interact with alternates? What interaction capability is required (e.g. to allow comparison or query visualizations and details)?
- 5.30pm Close
Free time
- 6.00pm A working drink (Venue to be decided)
- 7.00pm Event dinner (Venue to be decided)

Science & Heritage Cluster

Modelling, Interpretation and Alternate Representations:
Visualization technology, Heritage Buildings & Coastal Threats

Science and Heritage
Programme

FRIDAY 10 July

Draft programme 1.

- 9.30am Site visit:
St. Fagans, Gerallt Nash
- 12.00pm “Buildings in Second Life” Robert Gittins (Bangor University)
- 12.50pm Lunch
- 2pm “Visualizing & Modelling Heritage Buildings” Susan Fielding (RCAHMMW)
- 2.45pm Refreshments
- 2.50pm Discussion and Breakout Part 2:
- 3.50pm Plenary feedback
- 4pm Close

